A musical score for "The Star-Spangled Banner" is shown. The top staff begins with a treble clef, followed by a sharp sign indicating one sharp, and consists of eight measures. The first measure contains a quarter note on the A-line. The second measure contains a quarter note on the G-line. The third measure contains a quarter note on the F-line. The fourth measure contains a quarter note on the E-line. The fifth measure contains a quarter note on the D-line. The sixth measure contains a quarter note on the C-line. The seventh measure contains a quarter note on the B-line. The eighth measure contains a quarter note on the A-line. The bottom staff continues the melody, starting with a half note on the A-line. It then follows the same pattern as the top staff, with quarter notes on the G-line, F-line, E-line, D-line, C-line, B-line, and A-line. The piece concludes with a double bar line and repeat dots at the end of the eighth measure.
